3. Public Comments
There were no public comments
4. Old Business
  - a. Review of Community Center/Pool Project
    - i. Review of work completed (survey and studies)
      - Andy gave an update
    - ii. Land Lease
      - Trustee Greg Lott gave an update from Denison University
      - There are 2 years left on the 3-year lease with Denison University we would like to keep a good working relationship with Denison and Dr. Weinberg
    - iii. LMH
    - iv. Funding for the project
    - v. Budget pro-forma
      - Nothing in Granville has changed since 2012 feasibility study, no real development, the detailed breakdown of costs for the proposed Community center are still current
    - vi. Where we pause
      - It is important to have some kind of community engagement
      - Let's include Dr. Weinberg in a discussion of moving forward
    - vii. What is next
      - The project hasn't changed, a new partnership and location, same concept with possibility of a few changes based on community engagement
      - This project is on hold for now, the community engagement process will be next
    - viii. Community Input Process
      - Alison Terry, former Village Planner for Granville and well thought of in the community will lead the community engagement process.
    - ix. When should we go to ballot
      - COVID stole our window to go to the ballot, other partners are planning for ballot issues

- x. Taxation breakdown for the next 2 years
  - Future taxation in Granville: 2021- LCPD replacement, ¼ mils
  - 2021- Green Space, 1 mil renewal
  - 2022- Fire Levy, 1or 1½ mils
  - 2022- Schools Income Tax renewal
  - 2023- Cemetery renewal
- xi. Economic development
  - Andy reached out to Nate Strom of Grow Licking County
  - It would be good to build Community Center in a location where more economic development could happen
- xii. Other sites
  - We will begin to look at other sites, the community engagement process will help with this process and tell us a lot about what we want in the Community Center
- xiii. Reduce the project
- xiv. Remove the pool
- xv. New partners
- xvi. Next steps
  - Start Community Engagement process
  - Continue to show the community we are continuing to complete projects that were identified to be completed with our new levy funds
  - Lara design signs to go up in parks announcing what new is coming to the park
  - GRD goal is to build the right type of community center in the right location, with the right partners at the right time
